Deb Miss & Junior Miss Petite Lapin Queen's Agreement

I. Deb and Junior Miss Petite Lapin must appropriately conduct themselves while wearing their crown and banner and representing the Iowa Rabbit Festival.

The following is an illustrative, not exhaustive, list of inappropriate behavior:

1. Appropriate attire must be worn while representing the Iowa Rabbit Festival.
 - a. No short shorts, bare midriffs, or extremely short skirts may be worn.
 - b. Casual attire should be a nice outfit or dress.
 - c. Blue jeans should be worn only when warranted and not contain rips or holes.
 - d. Formal attire, crown, and banner are required for all pageants.
 - e. Hair and make-up should be appropriate.
2. No gum chewing while on stage as Deb or Junior Miss Petite Lapin.
3. No public displays of affection shown to a date or boyfriend while representing the Iowa Rabbit Festival.
4. No visible body piercings are to be worn while representing the Iowa Rabbit Festival. Ear piercings are acceptable.
5. A discourteous attitude toward anyone will not be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to verbal, electronic message boards, and social media (Facebook/Twitter/Instagram/etc).
6. Only the crown and banner you were crowned with should be worn when you travel. No one is allowed to make a different banner or wear a previous year's crown without permission from the pageant director.
7. Should you personalize anything with your title (polos, garment bags, etc.), it must match the title on your official banner.
8. Only the official pageant design should be used for personalization.

- II. Deb and Junior Miss Petite Lapin shall forfeit her crown and all prizes associated with the title for, but not limited to, any conduct unbecoming a queen or the above-mentioned regulations.
- III. Deb & Junior Petite Lapin must return to the 2026 Iowa Rabbit Festival Pageant to crown her successor after her year's reign.
- IV. Deb and Junior Miss Petite Lapin will reign over the 2026 Iowa Rabbit Festival held at the Burton Coliseum in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Any problems or concerns must be immediately reported to the pageant directors or committee.

I have read the above and understand my duties and obligations to the Iowa Rabbit Festival and the title of Deb or Junior Miss Petite Lapin.

On the 26th day of April 2025, this contract detailing the rules and regulations to be followed by Deb or Junior Miss Petite Lapin was reviewed, agreed to, and signed by said Rabbit Festival Queen, her parent or guardian, and the undersigned agent for the Iowa Rabbit Festival.
