In the place where animals slept, Mary gave birth to Jesus, the Son of God. Join us as we hear the story of Christmas in a barn, surrounded by animals, and experience the magic of the birth of Jesus together.

Notes for the service:
- The Service will be held in a barn. The barn has some heat & lights inside and outside.
- Dress appropriately to stay warm.
- Please wear snow boots/ hiking boots/ muck boots or any sturdy shoes that can get dirty. The walk to the barn is short and flat. Do not worry about dressing fancy for this Christmas service!
- Head to the registration booth (lit up and marked) and people will help to guide you to the barn for the service.

Directions to Roaring Acres Alpacas:
685 Hale Street, Suffield, CT 06078

From First Church of Christ
- Head south on High St/N Main St toward Mountain Rd
- Turn right onto CT-168 W/Mountain Rd
- Turn left onto Remington St
- Turn right onto Prospect St
- Continue onto Hale St
- The entrance on left with a long driveway. There are large Christmas ornament decorations at the entrance. (pictured)
- Please drive slowly when entering.
- There will be someone stationed at the end of the driveway- so you know you are in the right place!
- Follow the long driveway to the first parking lot, located next to the Welcome Barn and Registration booth. (pictured above)
  - Drop-offs should happen here for less walking, if needed.
  - Overflow parking continues down the driveway along the farm fence.
  - Someone will be available to help with parking directions.
- Once parked, head to the main entrance building and registration spot. (pictured above)