2022 Grand Marshalls

This year's Grand Marshalls are Neil and Connie Libertus. The Libertus family has been a part of Hamilton County 4-H and the Hamilton County Fair for over 50 years. Starting with Neil's mother, Dorothy Libertus and continuing through the fourth generation with their grandchildren.

As a child, Neil was involved in the Straight Shooters 4-H club in the woodworking and swine projects. When he later married Connie Hill, they continued the tradition by enrolling their children. Neil and Connie became project leaders, fair superintendents, 4-H community leaders and volunteered in most aspects of the Hamilton County Fair and 4-H. Their food truck business, Lobo's, served concessions at the Hamilton County Fair for many years, with their famous roasted corn being the highlight.

Over the years, Neil has assisted with building and rebuilding the rabbit and poultry cages, setting up booths in the fair building and providing the rabbit judging table for the rabbit show. Connie is back to serving as community leader for the Busy Bears 4-H club.

Every year, they can be counted on to enter their antique tractors in the parade and be involved in the antique tractor pull. They are a fixture in the rabbit and poultry barn at the fair where they assist their grandchildren with their animal exhibits.

The Libertus' are active members of their church, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and cook for their picnics annually.
