

Robyne Kelemen

Robyne is running for re-election to New Britain Borough (NBB) Council, where she has served since 2014. She is currently Vice President of Council and also serves as Secretary/Treasurer of the Central Bucks Regional Police Commission. She has also been the founding chairperson for the Borough's Public Safety Committee. Robyne is employed in the pharmaceutical field, and has graduate degrees from University of Pennsylvania in bioengineering, and undergraduate degrees from University of Delaware in chemical engineering and biology. Robyne has been a New Britain resident since 2003, is widowed, and resides with her two school-aged sons.