

Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp Summer 2022

We are back! Summer 2021 was so much fun that the Wolf Pack Camp is returning for another summer! Does your son need to be kept busy and physically engaged this summer? Our sports and games camp will offer a broad range of activities to engage your son. Activities include, but are not limited to: wiffle ball, kickball, two-handed-touch football, ring toss, soccer, capture-the-flag, relay races, lawn bowling, water balloon games/fights, slip 'n slide, scavenger hunts, tie-dyeing, and board/card games. Have your son come out for some good old-fashioned summer fun!

Who We Are: We are 2021 graduates from St. John's College High School. Our names are Nicholas Telma and Douglas Cohen. Nick is attending Villanova University in Philadelphia and Doug is attending Washington University in St. Louis. We both love sports and have been involved in a variety of sports throughout high school ranging from lacrosse, diving, wrestling, cross country, and baseball. Also, Nick has coached lacrosse for over a year and Doug has coached diving for three summers. Our love for sports led us to establish the Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp to encourage team building and physical activity.

Mission: Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp seeks to offer a safe and fun environment to our community where boys can release their energy, learn good-sportsmanship, build friendships, and be happily entertained for many days in the summer.

"Our son LOVED Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp. Nick, Doug, and the other counselors created an environment where boys have a ton of fun in a safe environment while learning from great role models who they truly look up to and want to emulate. We've sent our son to numerous, high-priced summer camps throughout DC, MD & VA. The only one he's asked us to make sure he can attend next summer is the Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp!"

We will have approximately 15 different games that we will cycle and mix into our schedule to ensure an exciting experience. No activity will be repeated on the same day with the aim to have about 5 different activities per day. If campers enjoy a particular game more than another, we will listen to the crowd and play the more popular game/sport more often. No experience is necessary to play any game/sport.

"Our son had a wonderful time at Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp. Every day was filled with diverse, high-energy activities that kept my son interested and engaged. Camp leaders were great with the kids, encouraging team building and problem solving among the kids. There was not one boring day, and my son arrived home pumped up (and pooped) following a fun, intense day. Camp leaders are great role models of leadership, kindness and patience, and I was thrilled to see my son adopting similar behaviors. No doubt we will enroll our son again next summer for as many weeks as possible."

"My son went to his first day at Wolf Pack Sports and Games Camp today and is already asking if I'll sign him up for additional weeks. It is an affordable, low key sports camp run by two recent high school graduates. I've been impressed by their clear communication and professionalism, as well as their kind and encouraging manner with the kids. If you're looking for a sports camp for your child, this may be a good fit and they have a few spots left in some weeks."
